

THE ROCKIT

L.A.'S ONLY ROCK & ROLL NEWSPAPER

NUMBER 11 • NOVEMBER 13, 2006 •

THE RIVERBOAT GAMBLERS @ KEY CLUB

10/05/06

by Christina Cetto

Alternative, punk and 1970s whiskey hard rock are only a few words to describe The Riverboat Gamblers. Live, the band delivers perfectly and really knows how to pump the audience. Hasty and melodious, the band leaves audiences cooing, jumping and demanding more.

Partying away in L.A.'s own Key Club adds more of a monstrous bang than The Riverboat Gamblers already bring to a town. The misty atmosphere and lively room encouraged the band and brought the house a new and improved vibe. It was almost as if the audience and band were psychically connected. They constantly worked off each other's energy and when the band was hyped, the fans grew louder. Lights, colors, and deafening music blurred the Key Club into a giant spitball of fire. L.A. had an abrupt awakening that night and had trouble sleeping afterward. The Riverboat Gamblers are an intense and exciting band to experience.