Over with Meticulous Care"

(Volcom Entertainment)

Ah, the great Sunder. Some liken their sound to a falcon's claw ripped on wine swooping down from a rainbow to scoop you up by your ears as you're riding your 10-speed home from the bar. Or that's what I heard. The boys at Volcom

Entertainment gave us a sneak listen to this little gem months before it's due out. You can get yours at the end of March. This CD mixes intellectual lyrics with two parts of life's passion for good drum beats and silky guitar licks, stirred with a sound unlike any other sound. If your day sucks, play this CD louder than you can hear your annoying neighbor bang on the wall, crack a cold one and dance like a penguin. - Hilldweller
