PARK PLACE, BARRIE, ONTARIO
Valient Thorr

Saturday, August 12, 2006

With a band name that conjures images of the Norse god of thunder, it's only natural that at the top on the Warped Tour, Valient Thorr's show would fly right clear to the heavens. "The only thing worth doing for us now is rock'n'roll," says Valient himself about diving into the crowd. "But I don't want to die, so you'd better catch me!"
