VALIENT THORR

Oct. 21 @ Alex's Bar

You probably saw Valient Thorr on this year's Warped Tour but didn't have any concept of what it was at the time. Suffice to say though, you probably felt baffled – along with a multitude of other emotions – if you did see the band perform. The closest thing to something descriptive that this writer can come up with is "pyschadelibilly." It's just something that has to be seen to be believed, especially at this hole-in-the-wall joint in Long Beach. Go see them for weirdness factor alone, so once again you can trump all your friends with stories of the crazy bands you've seen.
