OWWIES!

If you've ever seen the RIVERBOAT GAMBLERS, you know that getting X-rays is probably as common as paying the electric bill. Singer Mike Wiebe is an especially risky one. Above is a photo of his broken hand after falling off the stage at the Bamboozle fest. And yeah, the white things are pins. This isn't the first and I'm sure not the last Gambler accident for the pages of PRC.
