

Connections Magazine

OCTOBER
Volume 4, Issue 103

- Reviews
- Local & National News
- Events
- More!

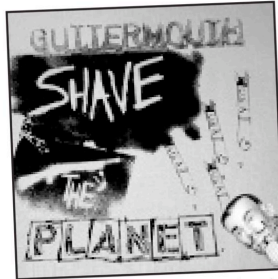

HOOKING UP ORLANDO'S MUSIC SCENE SINCE 1998

GUTTERMOUTH

Shave the Planet

Volcom Entertainment

Rating: ●●●● by Shannon Del Valle

"Guttermouth return with their 10th album, the audio equivalent of a Mel Brooks movie." This sentence taken straight off Volcom Entertainment's website perfectly describes the tone of Guttermouth's new CD, Shave The Planet. This album tries to contain 10 frantic-paced punk rock tracks that are gushing with sarcasm and turrets-inspired rants. You never know what Mark Adkins (vocals) may say next, and that makes Shave the Planet a fun, rollercoaster ride for your ears. "My Chemical Imbalance" does a spoof of part of the Suicidal Tendencies song "Institutionalized" while "Primate Camp" tackles Darwinism as only Guttermouth can. If you like bands like NOFX, but like to go light on politics, Guttermouth is the band for you.